Going to a new school can feel like starting all over again . You may feel like sad or angry about leaving your old school or friend . You may feel excited about a new beginning or a “fresh start” . You may feel nervous about having to meet new people . All of these feelings are normal when you start at a new school .

Most kids worry about fitting in at their new school . It’ s common for a new kid to feel like an outsider for the first few weeks . Although you can be lonely, you can help yourself fit in by being friendly . Even if you are nervous, try to smile, say hello and ask questions .

Here are two places where you might meet friends in a new school:

● The classroom: Look around you, is there anyone who you can talk to? Do you take part in group activities in class? If so, try to join a new group every time .

● Playground: Most schools offer many team sports . Try to join these sports .

Some kids worry about their teachers when they start a new school . Even if the teachers are supportive, it can take some time to adjust to new rules or ways of teaching . Try talking to them about your problem . Besides, with a familiar face in the front of your classroom you may feel more comfortable during the first few weeks of school .

(2021·广东广州·) This Way to Dreamland Daydreaming means people think about something pleasant, especially when this makes them forget what they should be doing. Daydreamers have a bad reputation for being unaware of what's happening around them. They can seem forgetful and clumsy. 16. They annoy us because they seem to be ignoring us and missing the important things. But daydreamers are also responsible for some of the greatest ideas and achievements in human history. 17. Can you imagine what kind of world we would have without such ideas and inventions? So how can you come up with brilliant daydreams and avoid falling over tree roots or otherwise looking like a fool? First, understand that some opportunities(机会) for daydreaming are better than others. Feeling safe and relaxed will help you to slip into daydreams. 18. And if you want to improve your chances of having a creative idea while you're daydreaming, try to do it while you are involved in another task—preferably something simple, like taking a shower or walking, or even making meaningless drawings. It's also important to know how to avoid daydreams for those times when you really need to concentrate. "Mindfulness", being focused, is a tool that some people use to avoid falling asleep. 19. Finally, you never know what wonderful idea might strike while your mind has moved slowly away. 20. Always remember that your best ideas might come when your head is actually in the clouds.

- A. Having interesting things to think about also helps.
- B. They stare off into space and wander by themselves.
- C. Without wandering minds, we wouldn't have relativity, Coke or Post-it notes.
- D. At one time, daydreaming was thought to be a cause of some mental illnesses.
- E. It involves slow, steady breathing for self-control that helps people stay calm and attentive.
- F. Daydreams are often very simple and direct, quite unlike sleep dreams, which may be hard to understand.
- G. Therefore, it's a good idea to keep a notebook or voice recorder nearby when you're in the daydream zone.
